EDMONTON BULLETIN, NOVEMBER 7, 1892

COAL RATES.

With winter closely approaching the coal question begins to assume a special prominence in the Northwest. Notwithstanding the ozone, the dryness of the air, the chinook winds, etc., etc., the first and great winter requirement of a dweller in the Northwest is plenty of good and cheap fuel. In the Edmonton district this is obtainable in the shape of both wood and coal, in inexhaustible abundance, the only cost being the labor involved in preparing for use, and bringing to market. The question of how to secure a supply of fuel therefore does not exist in this district. But this same abundance gives rise to the question of how to profitably dispose of it to those less fortunately situated. The question of the export of fuel, both wood and coal, is as important to the Edmonton district, as the question of the import of one or both of these articles is to every other section of Manitoba and the Territories; for this is the only district in which both wood and coal exist so abundantly. As to the quality of both articles, The wood is the ordinary poplar of the Northwest, but larger and longer than is found elsewhere and therefore makes better firewood, and besides can be made into cordwood more cheaply. The coal differs materially from that found in other parts of the Northwest and therefore a more particular description is in order, particularly as it has been the subject of more misrepresentation in times past than anything else connected with the Edmonton district. As a stove coal for household use it excels all other Northwest coals. It is clean to handle as anthracite, lights more readily and burns away entirely to ashes, leaving no shaly matter as does the Banff anthracite. It burns as briskly as the Galt coal, giving as great a heat, and gives off absolutely no soot as does that coal rendering it unsuitable for use in parlor or dry goods stores, or any place where fabrics can be damaged by soot. For raising steam in stationary engines it cannot be excelled. The Edmonton electric light service is the most efficient in the Territories, as it could not be were the coal used in firing the engine not suitable for the purpose, for the evenness of the light depends upon the steam being kept up evenly. It is mined more cheaply than any other Northwest coal, and has only one fault, that it will not stand frequent handling except in winter. The C. & E. railway terminates immediately over one coal drift and there are six others immediately opposite on the north side of the river. And yet the shipments of coal from Edmonton last winter, were comparatively insignificant on account of the prohibitory railway rates. Three dollars a ton was the rate on coal from Edmonton to Calgary last winter. It has now been reduced to $2.60 far 200 miles of haul, a little less than the coal can be delivered on the cars for, and a little more than it could be delivered for were the track extended to the river flat, as it should be. Although Edmonton coal is a good coal, its great recommendation is that it is cheap and abundant; just what the Northwest needs; and when the C. P. R. imposes such a high railway rate upon its transport to market, it not only cuts Edmonton, but it cuts every part of the Northwest where coal is used where it will hurt most. Looking at the matter broadly, considering that the first necessity of the Northwest is cheap fuel—that the cheaper the fuel the better country is to live in—that Edmonton can furnish the needed fuel more cheaply than any other point; it seems a strange policy that chocks the export of coal from Edmonton by a heavy railway rate and brings in Pennsylvania coal at a rate far below. The Northwest depends upon the railway for its development; and not less upon the rates which will permit the development of its own natural resources than upon those which enable Montreal and Toronto to sell dry goods, groceries and machinery to Northwest settlers.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Calgary tannery has begun to turn out leather.

Immigrants from Hamburg are again arriving in New York.

Clendening's flour mill near Carmen, Manitoba, was wrecked recently by a boiler explosion.

Geo. Pyke, accountant of the Imperial Bank at Toronto, who recently absconded, had misappropriated the bank's funds to the extent of $10,000.

A. Bain, in the employ of the H. B. Co. at Fort Qu'Appelle, recently lost his right arm by a gun accident. He had recently arrived from Scotland.

The Regina Leader announced that N. F. Davin, M. P., would attend the banquet given at Brandon to the new minister of interior, on November 4th.

The Regina Leader mentions that a departmental enquiry is now being made into certain reports circulated in Regina against Mr. Peters, Dominion clerk of works there.

The Bishop of Saskatchewan and Calgary has returned from England, where he succeeded in raising £5,000 towards the endowment of the Calgary diocese. The amount required is £10,000.

It is reported in Montreal that a movement is on foot to have a manifesto signed by all French-Canadian members of Quebec province, Tory and Liberal, issued demanding justice for the French-Canadians of Manitoba.

Ferdinand Allard, a blacksmith of Point Levis, Quebec, is said to have re-discovered the long lost art of making copper as hard as steel. This art was known when the pyramids were built, but has been forgotten for thousands of years.

Reported that the C. P. R. will put on a line of fast steamers between Liverpool and Quebec, which will land passengers in Canada in five days from England. The usual government subsidy will, of course, be forthcoming. This time the amount is $750,000 a year.

The P. & O. steamer Bokhara was wrecked in a typhoon, between Hong Kong and Shanghai, on October 10th. The C. P. R. Empress of Japan was in the company of the Bokhara, but was unharmed. One hundred and twenty lives were lost on the Bokhara, there being only 23 survivors.

L. A. Hamilton, land commissioner of the C. P. R., Archer Baker, European traffic agent for the C. P. R., J. Innis, of the Allan line, will meet in Ottawa shortly to confer with the Dominion government regarding immigration. Messrs. Baker and Innis visited Edmonton a few weeks ago.

The Empress of Japan brought to Victoria the captains and crews of the Canadian sealers Carmelite and Maria, seized by the Russians 17 and 28 miles respectively off Copper Island. The men were taken to Vladivostock by the Russian warship Witges, bearing the admiral of the fleet, and after severe hardships there were sent to Nagasaki. There they found that the British warship Leander had left to rescue them. They awaited her return from Vladivostock and were informed by the commander that their seizure was illegal and would be resented.

Abbe Dugas has a letter in Le Canadien, in which he refers to the French-Canadians leaving for the States, and says it is only a question of time when the annexation of the whole country will follow, unless something is done to check the exodus. The remedy he suggests is to divert the tide to Manitoba and the Northwest. If, he says, "instead of bleeding themselves to secure the refuge of Europe, we should furnish families, who are leaving for the States, with means of settling in Manitoba, we might somewhat repair the evil which has caused us to melt away during recent years."

HOTEL ARRIVALS BY TRAIN SOUTH EDMONTON.

Monday.

Hotel Edmonton—W. L. Tate, Vancouver; Harry A. Galbraith, Toronto; C. A. Lundberg, Sweden; Joseph O. Conners, Ab. Shellington, S. Minaker, H. H. Robertson, United States; M. Weston, S. R. Parkin, Winnipeg; H. Rodberg, Wetaskawin, J. J. Bruce, J. Smith, Innisfail; John Gibson, Portage la Prairie; A. Talbot, Beaver Hills; J. Ranton, J. Hill, Winnipeg.

W. MAGEE, J. B. Pilon and M. Rowe returned from a mining trip to Peace river on Saturday, October 29th.

PRairie chickens are numerous right in town and are frequently seen flying about singly and in flocks close to the houses.

PART of the machinery for the South Edmonton roller mill arrived last week. The building has been ready for the machinery for some time.

SEVERAL Germans have gone into the business of supplying the town with rabbits, which are becoming numerous. The price is two for a quarter. Supply and demand both appear to be good.

T. W. JACKSON, travelling agent of the Ontario Mutual Life Association, came in from Calgary on Monday's train and went out on Friday. Mr. Jackson was a member of the Northwest assembly from '83 to '86, for the district of Qu'Appelle. He is also the original promoter of the Wood Mountain and Qu'Appelle railway.

IT will be well for all parties experimenting in the growth of fruit trees, to take measures to protect them this winter from rabbits, which, when they become numerous as they are now, and the snow gets deep, gnaw the bark and kill the tree. A salt barrel with the ends out would probably be as cheap and good a protection as could be procured.

A TWENTY-SEVEN page pamphlet, containing the evidence of John Craig, horticulturist, before the select committee of the House of Commons on agriculture and colonization, session 1892, printed by order of parliament, is to hand. The evidence of Mr. Craig is not of a sensational character, but is nevertheless valuable and interesting. It relates to the culture of fruit trees and bushes, naming the best varieties and suggesting systems of management tending to success. Speaking of raspberries, Mr. Craig says: "The amount of annual snowfall will have an important effect upon the character of the results; in localities of limited snowfall and severe frost, winter protection of small fruits is now an important factor towards paying returns." On growing onions from seed he advises sowing in a hot bed and transplanting, as a means of getting an early start for the onion and saving from the attacks of the cut worms. To protect trees against field mice he advises to remove all rubbish from the root of the tree and tramp the snow firmly about the root after each storm, or bank each tree up with earth to a height of 12 to 15 inches.
